

Tap into a new talent pipeline

---

Companies that utilize the reachHIRE program realize multiple benefits. In addition to bringing a professional maturity, commitment and stability, returning women also provide companies a workforce that is better aligned to their customer profile.

NCTECH
Association

"Our collaboration with reachHIRE supports our commitment to foster a diverse and inclusive workforce and is a valuable resource to identify and support talented women returning to work."

— Brooks Raiford
President & CEO at North Carolina Technology Association

reachHIRE

powering business ★ empowering women

Powering business

---

reachHIRE bridges the gender equality gap, providing companies with an alternative talent strategy for sourcing experienced, professional women. Operating from the front lines, not a database, every reachHIRE candidate is personally vetted by our team.
