MONTHLY HIGHLIGHT

OUTLOOK FOR TECH + STATE OF THE INDUSTRY REPORT

NC TECH's research is a well-respected source of data for the tech industry across the state. The 2023 State of the Technology Report (STIR) will be released in a few weeks at the Outlook for Tech conference. This annual statewide kick-off event is packed with leading perspectives on trends and innovations shaping technology. In addition to the release of the STIR data and key findings report, the conference features executive panel discussions, a predictions keynote, an innovation briefing, NC TECH's 2023 Preview, a tech expo and opportunities to network. NC TECH's research partner, Ted Abernathy with Economic Leadership, will share a briefing on the annual STIR data. Interested in learning more:
